

Friday 2nd December 2005

Hôtel de Paris – Monaco

* * *

Under the High Patronage of H.S.H. Prince Albert II and with the support of the Monegasque Government

PROGRAMME: Sustainable Development, Alternative Energy, Innovation.

▪ 09h30 – 10h00 Welcome of Attendees

▪ 10h00 – 10h45 Opening of the 8th Monte Carlo Business Angels Forum

Welcome Speech by Mike Pedersen, Managing Director, Barclays Private Bank

Medium Term Perspective of Energy Markets
by Kevin Norrish, Barclays Capital

▪ 10h45 – 11h30 Lecture by Dr Bertrand Piccard

Solar impulse: a new vision of sustainable development

▪ 11h30 – 12h15 Debate with Dr Bertrand Piccard (questions and answers)
facilitated by Bernard Spindler, President of the Monaco Press Club

Is sustainable development commercially viable?
Michael Eisa, Business Development Manager, Intel, describes Intel's experience of converting to energy savings

In what way will sustainable development change Business Angels' investment decisions?

▪ 12h15 – 12h45 Apéritif networking

▪ 12h45 – 13h00 Presentation of the International Leading Entrepreneur Award to Dr Bertrand Piccard by Mike Pedersen and Gildo Pallanca Pastor.

▪ 13h00 – 15h00 Lunch

▪ 15h00 – 15h30 Official Photographs
Closing statements by Mike Pedersen and Gildo Pallanca Pastor.

After the Monte Carlo Business Angels Forum, participants are invited to attend:

The Twenty Years of EUREKA ! (15h30 – 17h30) :

- Franck BIANCHERI, Government Counselor for Finance and the Economy
- Pierre COLLOWALD, General Secretary for EUREKA! : Project to create a European investment fund around EUREKA !
- Presentation of EUREKA !: A European inter-governmental initiative to share research and innovation between companies, of which the Principality has been a member since January 2005

This presentation will be followed by drinks to encourage more informal interaction between participants.